Obituary

The hour glass with its sand of time, has spilled its contents, and with the passing of the best sand, went the life of our beloved one, husband, best friend, brother and father.

Brother Nora Hollands was born in the State of Mississippi. Upon reaching adulthood, he met and married his wife, Beatrice. This union lasted for over thirty-four years.

Heaven rejoiced on September 1, 1987 when Dad Hollands accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour. He spent much time in praise and prayer. On September 6, 1987, he united with the Emmanuel Church of God in Christ, under the auspices of Pastor Leroy Mardis.

God spoke peace to his soul on Wednesday, December 23, 1987 at approximately 1:45 p.m. He closed his eyes in eternal sleep holding the hand of his devoted wife, Beatrice.

He leaves to mourn and to cherish his memory, his wife, Beatrice; his two first cousins, Willie Loving and Geneva Jones of St. Louis, Mo; two sister-in-laws, Mrs. Mattie Lewis and Mrs. Elsie Lewis; a devoted cousin, Annie Hosken and a loving niece, Mrs. Jessie Lloyd; two foster daughters, Eva Ruth Enox of Inglewood, Ca., and Barthena Kemp of Alhambra, Ca; and a host of loving relatives and friends.

Rest now my beloved. We loved you, but God loves you best.
